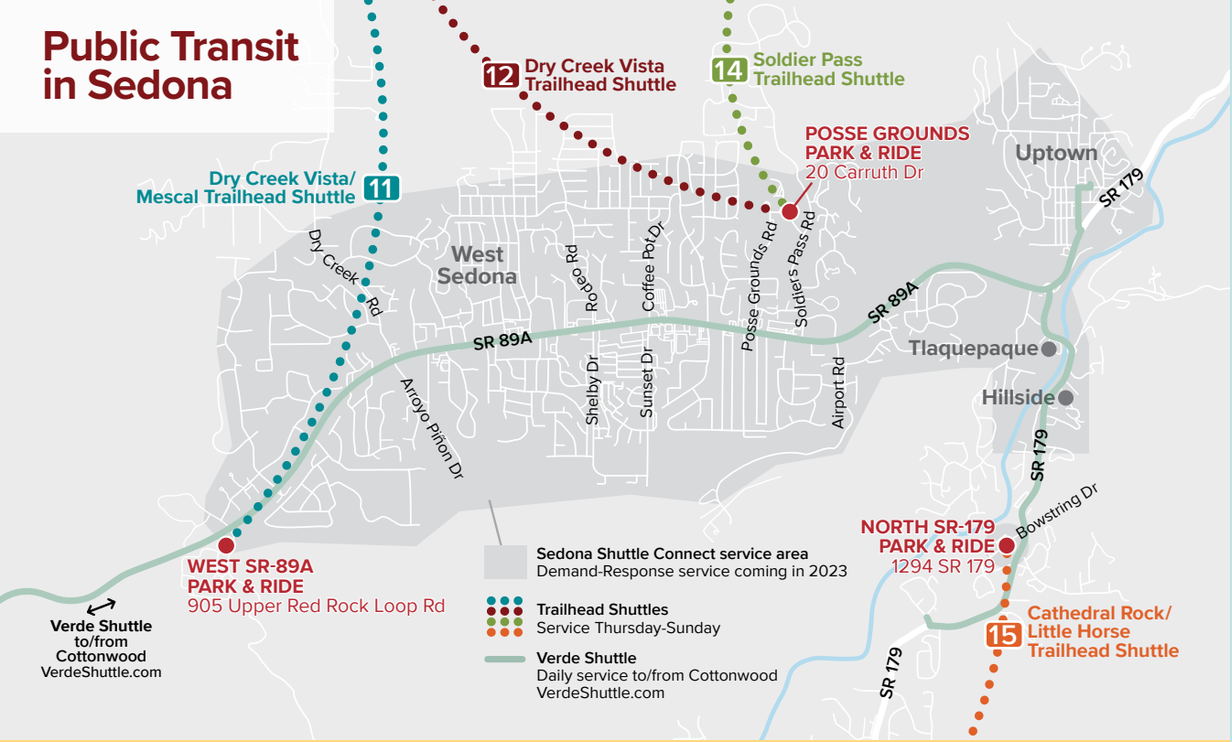
Public Transit in Sedona



Riding Sedona Shuttle's Free Trailhead Routes

- Use the map inside this guide to see which shuttle route serves the hike you want to take.
- Download the TransLoc app for real-time shuttle departures.
- Go to the free park and ride lot for the shuttle you want to access. Google Maps can help you find the way, or just look for the signs.
- Catch the free shuttle and get dropped quickly and safely, right at the trailhead.
- Sedona Shuttle buses are wheelchair accessible and have bike racks for up to three bikes.
- When you've finished your hike, catch a relaxing ride from the trailhead back to your car.

Other Public Transportation in Sedona

- The Verde Shuttle connects Cottonwood and Sedona, as well as providing service within Sedona. For more information visit VerdeShuttle.com.
- Later in 2023 Sedona Shuttle will introduce app-based on-demand service that will provide rides anywhere within the Microtransit zone shown on the map above. Stay tuned for more details.

Covid Safety

Based on current CDC guidance, face masks are recommended at this time but are not mandatory. Should face masks be required, the driver will let you know and will provide a mask if you need one.
