What's your Las Vegas Club Style?

No matter what your nightlife taste, Las Vegas has a scene for you. The city is a perpetual source for the best and brightest ideas in nightclubs and lounges, attracting the hottest names in the industry.

©Encore

►►► Sophisticated Luxury

XS at Encore has earned its reputation as one of the most luxurious nightclubs in Las Vegas with extravagant indoor bottle service and an equally posh outdoor setting with cabanas by the pool. Superstar resident DJs like David Guetta and Avicii make XS a “Dance Music Mecca.” Don’t miss The Ono signature cocktail priced at a mere $10,000 (men’s silver cufflinks or women’s 18k gold chain included).

►►► Dance All Night

Hands down, the Marquee Nightclub at The Cosmopolitan has the deepest and most diverse bench of DJ talent for their 2014 lineup, which means the music just does not stop. There is certainly no better place to find the best open-format DJs on a consistent basis. Choose your dancing shoes carefully.

►►► Exotic Ambiance

One of the newest spots on the Strip, FIZZ Champagne Bar & Lounge at Caesars Palace provides one of the most intriguing settings around. Silk moiré and walnut walls, cognac chandeliers, faux fur and cheetah set a wild tone, but it’s Creative Director David Furnish and Sir Elton John’s personal photography collection that takes a night out with fabulous bubbly and kicks it up a notch.

©Caesars

►►► Laid Back

At Lily Bar & Lounge at Bellagio they don’t mistake a relaxed atmosphere for a casual affair. Located in the heart of Bellagio’s casino floor, Lily combines a sophisticated and intimate lounge setting with a lush environment, superb cocktails and world-class music. Lily does it all with a certain mellow flair that’s rare for a nightlife setting.

©AI Powers/Powers Imagery

►►► Anything Goes

In a town known and loved for its incredible parties, there is no more impressive a venue than Hakkasan at MGM. As the largest dance club in Las Vegas, it offers five levels of club space unveiling a variety of experiences. Combined with unrivaled music and a gracious dining area, the evening is what you make of it.

THE LIVE JAZZ VENUE

With the view of the Las Vegas Strip alone making it worth a visit, the Mandarin Bar at Mandarin Oriental includes a lounge that happens to feature some of the best live jazz in Las Vegas. Things get jazzy Sunday and Tuesday nights.

THE ALL-AROUND GREAT VIBE

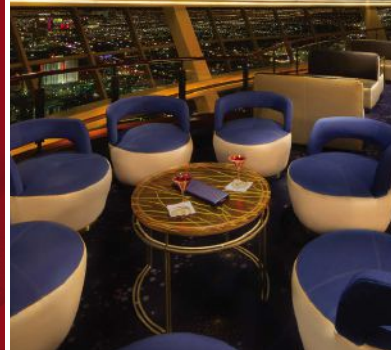

Book & Stage at The Cosmopolitan features great cover bands on an elevated stage behind the bar. Crowds gather from the casino to watch musicians rock out, there’s no velvet rope or cover charge, and the bar is easily accessible. Lounge away.

THE PIANO BAR

The Bar at Times Square at New York, New York is always raucous and buzzing with the best “dueling piano” action in town. The pianists are able to play practically anything you can request, from Sinatra to Shakira. The perfect place for a sing-along.

24 Hours Downtown

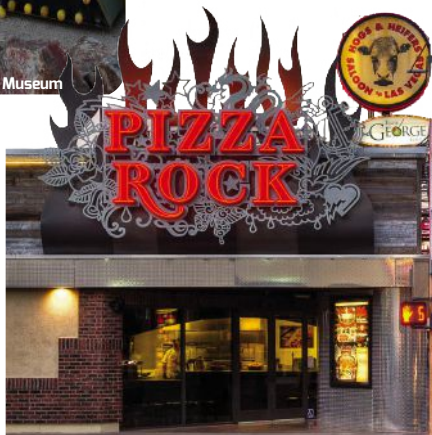

Downtown Las Vegas is where this iconic city got its start, and it's experiencing a resurgence in recent years. If you haven't experienced Downtown, get ready for a wild ride through a diverse, culturally rich neighborhood full of fresh and old-school style.

☉ Morning ☉

Start your Downtown tour with a hearty meal, diner-style. Du-par's at the Golden Gate casino offers Las Vegas' favorite pancakes to go with your morning coffee. Then peek at Vegas' beginnings with visits to the Neon Museum, where the iconic and historical signs of the past live on. If your little ones need a little excitement, don't miss Discovery Children's Museum, three stories of science and art-filled fun for kids of all ages. If it's Friday, it's time to swing through the Downtown 3rd Farmers Market for incomparable freshness. Bet you didn't think you'd find that in Downtown Vegas.

☉ Noon ☉

Downtown is chock-full of power lunch spots. Eat where the movers and shakers do with the fierce flavors of Le Thai on Fremont Street or opt for homey Mexican cuisine at La Comida just around the corner. For more variety, check out the various pie styles served at Pizza Rock on Third Street, or stroll through the colorful new Container Park, a mini-mall stacked with boutique shops and casual eateries like Pinches Tacos, Big Ern's BBQ and the charming wine bar Bin 702.

☉ Night ☉

If you're looking for energy, you've found it. Downtown is electric at night, and not just because of the Fremont Street Experience, the city's original drag of casinos covered with the dazzling Viva Vision LED canopy. Roam this old-school strip and grab dinner at Golden Nugget's seafood spot Chart House or the vintage Italian eatery Joe Vicari's Andiamo Steakhouse at The D.

On the east side of Las Vegas Boulevard, more energy awaits. Fremont East is the hottest bar district in Las Vegas, where a new breed of party bounces between classic cocktail spots, hip saloons and multi-experience entertainment venues. All kinds of music is booming at Backstage Bar & Billiards, and just across the street, DJs pump up a cool young crowd on the rooftop bar at Commonwealth. A few steps away in the old-school El Cortez casino, swill a throwback Blood & Sand cocktail within the swank, but unpretentious, Parlour bar.

For a more laid-back experience, head to Downtown 3rd for drinks at Downtown Grand's refreshing Art Bar, or cross over to the Arts District to check out the extensive beer list and creative mixology unfolding at Velveteen Rabbit. Nightlife knows no boundaries in today's Downtown.

Las Vegas Dining

7 DAYS OF DINING IN VEGAS

Las Vegas food editor Brock Radke shares his ideal weeklong culinary journey covering breakfast, lunch, dinner, cocktails and superb snacks.

The Mediterranean Garden at Estiatorio Milos

©The Cosmopolitan

Day 1

WHERE: Bouchon
EAT: Breakfast
ORDER: Chicken and waffles

There's just no topping acclaimed chef Thomas Keller's classic bistro fare at Venetian's Bouchon. It's a memorable meal here any time of day, but I love breakfast (or weekend brunch) most, when you can relish both the simple things — perfectly crunchy baguettes with fresh jam and Nutella, or rich, buttery pastries — and the truly indulgent dishes like roasted chicken with a fluffy bacon and chive waffle.

©BananaWonder

Day 2

WHERE: Estiatorio Milos
EAT: Lunch
ORDER: Lavraki (grilled sea bass)

This serene Greek eatery at the hip Cosmopolitan is famous for its three-course lunch deal, where for just over $20 you can assemble a customized sampling of authentic, super-fresh Mediterranean seafood prepared with reverent, traditional minimalism to allow each pristine ingredient to shine. Don't miss the tomato salad, beautifully grilled lavraki sea bass or crispy fried eggplant stack. This is the place where you'll fall in love with the simplicity of olive oil and lemon juice.

©The Cosmopolitan

Day 3

WHERE: Nobu Caesars Palace
EAT: Dinner
ORDER: Creamy spicy rock shrimp

Legendary chef Nobu Matsuhisa has doubled down in Las Vegas with his first Nobu hotel at Caesars Palace and his largest restaurant anywhere, the new mecca for innovative sushi and sashimi, Japanese fusion, creative teppan-yaki cooking and so much more. This sleek, sexy dining space is the ideal place to revisit the master's signature dishes like miso-glazed black cod, creamy spicy rock shrimp and yellow-tail jalapeño.

©kennjima

©Kennejima

Day 4

WHERE: Jean Philippe Patisserie
EAT: Breakfast
ORDER: French macarons

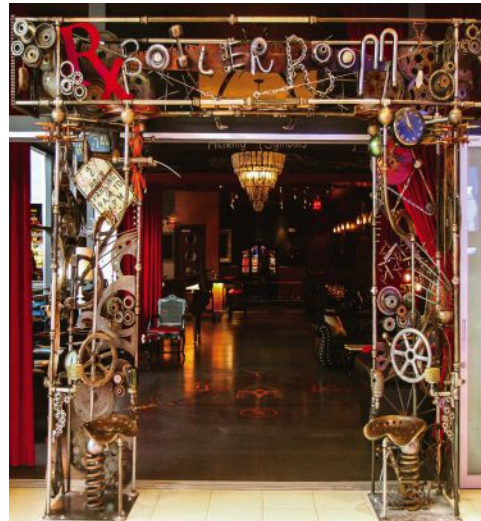

With locations at Bellagio and ARIA resorts on the Strip, a day-brightening and conveniently quick breakfast is always nearby at Jean Philippe. European-style pastries, cookies, cakes, crepes, salads and sandwiches are baked and crafted fresh daily with fantastic flavors to please all eaters. You'll feel like you've entered Willy Wonka's factory as you finish every last bite while marveling at the magnificent chocolate fountain at Bellagio.

Day 5

WHERE: Rx Boiler Room
EAT: Snacks & cocktails
ORDER: Smoked whiskey & cola

Comfort food meets mad scientist-style mixology at Mandalay Bay's Victorian-inspired Rx Boiler Room. Both food and drink are wildly re-invented at this new hot spot. Be prepared to have your mind blown by a smoked whiskey and cola or a barrel-aged negroni, and delectable drinks paired with chicken pot pie nuggets, bacon and egg bites, or savory shellfish shepherd's pie.

Day 7

WHERE: Bartolotta Ristorante di Mare
EAT: Dinner
ORDER: Langoustines

One of the most uniquely thrilling dining experiences anywhere, the newly renovated Bartolotta Ristorante di Mare at Wynn Las Vegas is a lakeside palace of authentic Italian cuisine and fresh-from-the-Mediterranean seafood. From truffle ravioli to whole roasted sea bass to sea urchin risotto, each dish is impeccably crafted with expert precision. Even among the Strip's fine dining masterpieces, Bartolotta stands out.

Brock Radke is the food and restaurant editor at Las Vegas Weekly magazine.

A longtime local journalist, he's also the author of the Strip-centric column The Incidental Tourist.

Day 6

WHERE: Bobby's Burger Palace
EAT: Lunch
ORDER: Vegas Burger

Celebrity chef Bobby Flay's take on great American fast food has landed in Las Vegas and Bobby's Burger Palace at Crystals at CityCenter is an instant hit. Start with the deliciously whimsical Crunch Burger, saturated in melted American cheese and topped with potato chips, then upgrade to the Vegas Burger with Fresno chillies and barbecue potato chips. This is how burgers were meant to be, with crispy French fries and rich, guilt-inducing milkshakes to boot.

Summer Romance

TABLE FOR TWO

Las Vegas is for lovers. Find stunning tables and romantic settings for your most memorable date night at these amazing restaurants:

➤ Top of the World at Stratosphere. Located more than 800 feet above the Las Vegas Strip, this iconic eatery completes a full 360-degree revolution every 80 minutes. The only thing that could possibly compete with the dramatic desert valley views is the refined global cuisine, which mixes classic dishes like chilled seafood platters, grass-fed steaks and racks of lamb with subtle, delicious French and Asian influence.

➤ Crush at MGM Grand. Steal a table in the rear room of this new wine-centric restaurant and relax under the white brick, barrel-vaulted ceiling (with its own private bar) and an intimate vibe hard to find elsewhere. At Crush you can share creative small plates with your date or go big with main entrees like a juicy ribeye for two; this menu is customizable.

➤ Alizé at Palms. Fine French fare created by a chef couple with a splendid view of the Strip — what could be more romantic? Under the direction of chef and owner André Rochat, chef de cuisine Mark Purdy and his fiancé, pastry chef Tammy Alana, will wow your tastebuds with savory and sweet while classic, formal service in the top-of-the-Palms dining room will thrill your other senses.

➤ Scarpetta at The Cosmopolitan. When did restaurants get this sexy? In a quiet corner of The Cosmopolitan hides celebrity chef Scott Conant's Italian flagship, a place named for the affectionate way one scoops the last bit of sauce from the plate with a crust of bread. This food is drenched in that affection. Score a table overlooking the neighboring Bellagio and check out a truly unique view of the dancing fountains.

➤ Twist at Mandarin Oriental. If gastronomy is your true love, head to the 23rd floor of the sleek Mandarin Oriental hotel, where culinary legend Pierre Gagnaire and his Vegas crew create the most thrillingly experimental food in the city. Tasting menus change with the seasons so there's always something new, which means it's always a good time for a little Twist.

➤ Hugo's Cellar at the Four Queens. Classic Vegas gourmet rooms like Hugo's Cellar are hard to find these days, but this one isn't going anywhere. Ladies receive a rose before snacking on shrimp cocktails and tableside-prepped Caesar salads, and ordering surf and turf is a natural. If Old Vegas charm is the spark you're looking for, this is your spot.

➤ Yellowtail at Bellagio. Light and refined, modern Japanese cuisine has become the way many of us love to eat these days. If you're looking for a sexy, sleek, slightly futuristic setting where you can do the minimalist thing, Yellowtail is an incredible option. Of course, Bellagio's signature luxury is splashed all over, from your golden-hued view of the fountains to the brilliant omakase chef's choice tasting menu.

Treat Yourself

Score the most decadent desserts in Las Vegas

Gordon Ramsay Steak at Paris

Some skip dinner altogether to save room for the luxurious sticky toffee pudding, a revolutionary treat served with brown butter ice cream. Coffee service is outstanding, too, offering liquored chocolates to stir into your cup.

Buddy V's at Venetian

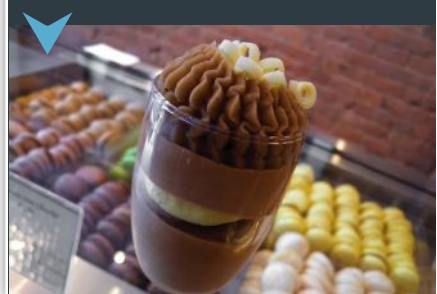

TV's "Cake Boss" Buddy Valastro has landed on the Strip and he's brought his beloved sweets with him. Don't miss the cream-filled "lobster tail" pastry, or what might be Las Vegas' richest tiramisu.

Sage at ARIA

This fine dining gem makes equal efforts with its post-meal treats, beautiful sweet treasure like milk chocolate cremeux with coconut gelato and apple fritters with root beer panna cotta. It looks as good as it tastes.

Payard at Caesars Palace

This patisserie and bistro is all about perfection, tiny tarts, chocolates and pastries that are works of delicious art. Try the George V, chocolate and vanilla mousse with caramelized peanuts and black sacher biscuit.
